Disciple Now to Impact Culture and Society

REV TONY YEO, SENIOR PASTOR

You are the salt of the earth ... You are the light of the world ... – Matthew 5:13-14

The Church is called to be distinct as salt to hinder social decay and to be the light in the midst of prevailing darkness to illumine the society.

Four ways Covenant EFC seeks to impact culture and society:

Prayer

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. – 1 Timothy 2:1-2

Both our individual prayers and corporate prayers shouldn't just be inward but outward focused as well. As an example, the Church was so blessed to have our Prime Minister at Jubilee Day of Prayer (JDOP) on 5 July 2015. We believe God stirred his heart as we prayed to advance the Kingdom by first abiding in the King.

Truth

For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes ... – Romans 1:16

God's truth including the Gospel is much more powerful than the devil's lies. Let's use every opportunity to commend the wisdom and truth of biblical teaching. Lord willing, in 2019, we will proclaim this One Name to our nation at the National Harvest.

Example

... that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. – Matthew 5:16

While truth is powerful, truth lived out in our personal lives and through the Church is more powerful. The world is watching our marriages, families, communities and our contribution to the marketplace.

Unity

That they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. – John 17:21

The Kingdom of God is larger than Covenant EFC. No organisation can impact culture and society alone. We need one another. There is great strength when churches and Christian organisations collaborate and commit to one another and to Christ.

Let's offer ourselves as instruments in God's hands to be the salt and light impacting Singapore's culture and society.

LAST WEEK'S SERMON SUMMARY

What Matters to God

SCRIPTURE: EZRA 2:1-67 ■ SERMON: REV DR CHUA CHUNG KAI

Introduction

Why would God allow for a list of names to be written in the Bible?

We see two reasons:

A. Every Name Matters to God

1. The list of names is documented in two ways — by means of family name and by means of places. Both were acceptable ways to do so. Perhaps the reason why the Lord allowed for this list to be recorded in both these forms was to remind them of His promises to Abraham in Genesis 12:7; 13:14-15; 15:18. It's a reminder of His promises to give the land to Abraham's descendants. God's promises matter to Him.
2. Then the constant repetition of the “sons of” reminds the people that those who were returning were the next generation. It's a wonderful way to say that the Next Generation matters to Him. As parents we are encouraged to continue to pray that our children truly know and accept God for themselves.
3. Names are important because they are not just some alphabets. They represent real people with real parents with real lives, real issues etc. Names are important to God because people, made in His image, matter to Him.

B. Every Role Matters to God

1. There were various roles for the returnees — leaders, lay people, priests, Levites, singers, Temple servants etc. Some of these returnees would not have a very “glamorous” role — they ended up as servants of the servants of the priests (i.e. they would probably be doing very menial tasks). Yet these, who had a choice, chose to return to the Promised Land. Even those who were not able to prove their ancestry chose to come back. God stirred their hearts to ensure that all the necessary roles were filled for the rebuilding of His Temple.
2. There is a place for everyone to serve, especially in the start up of Covenant East. If you already have a church, we encourage you to serve back in your church. If you believe God has called you to be with Covenant East this season, then we encourage you to serve along with us to grow His Church here.

Conclusion

This list was not merely to fill in empty spaces. It documented real lives and real people who trusted God and made a difference! God Himself saw it fit to give His Son's life so that our names can be placed in His Book of Life. May we not waste our lives, but live it fully for His glory!
