Rejoice in the Lord!

PAUL SHI, THE NEXT GENERATION

It's one of those verses we are all familiar with: "Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice." But the more I look into this passage, the more I see something in the Apostle Paul's life that challenges and convicts. When He penned the words "Rejoice in the Lord", he was writing in a prison cell. How can a man who had nothing, classified as a criminal, not only rejoice in the Lord, but even told believers to do the same?

I am prone to complain. When things do not go my way, I complain. I find it difficult to rejoice in the Lord as I am, let alone to rejoice in the Lord whilst in a difficult position. So, what was it in Paul's life that he could rejoice in the Lord whilst in the most dire straits?

He deeply valued his spiritual inheritance in Christ. Paul had a very keen awareness of what he already has in Christ. He valued the inheritance in Christ — Christ's redemption upon His own life and the communion with the Holy Spirit (Eph 1-2), so much so that when he prays for the Church, Paul wanted the Church to have their eyes enlightened, to have a spirit of wisdom, and the revelation of the knowledge of God (Eph1:15-18). For Paul, the deep awareness of God and the riches that come from the knowledge of Him form a solid foundation in his inner life so much so that he could rejoice in the Lord whilst in a very difficult situation. The foundation of his joy and life was not based on external circumstances, but rather in the unseen spiritual inheritance that he has in Christ.

Paul cultivated a heart of gratitude. Paul said in a few verses later in Philippians 4:10 that He had learned to be contented in whatever circumstance. It means that if we are to grow in joy and contentment, it doesn't come naturally but has to be learned. According to Spurgeon, "Contentment is one of the flowers of heaven ... it must be cultivated; it will not grow in us by nature, it is the new nature alone that can produce it." Therefore, it requires intentionality to grow in this deeper and richer foundation.

Let's ask the Lord to help us cultivate a deeper and richer life in Christ!

LAST WEEK'S SERMON SUMMARY

A Prayer for the Journey

SCRIPTURE: EZRA 8:21-23 ■ SERMON: PS ANDY LEW

Introduction

Why prayer is critical for our spiritual journey:

A. It Establishes Our Priorities in Life (v.21)

“Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava ...”

1. Through Stopping – “there, at the river Ahava ...” There is never a convenient place to pray.
2. Through Starving – “I proclaimed a fast ... that we might humble ourselves before our God.”
 - a. Three types of fast: morning (Neh 1:4), repenting (Ezr 10:6), and petitioning (Esth 4:15).
 - b. Illustration: We skip lunch to do more work; can we skip lunch to pray for God's work?
3. Through Seeking – “to seek from him a safe journey ...” (v.23 uses ‘implored’) Actively seeking God's deliverance.
4. Illustration: Board Prayer, Women's BTW Prayer, Men's BTW Prayer, intercessors every Sunday, Missions Prayer, WEB Parents in Prayer, and CG Prayer & Praise
5. Application: Prayer should not be an afterthought; it should be the first thought.

B. It Expresses Our Dependence on God (v.22)

“... The hand of our God is for good on all who seek him ...”

1. Dependence begins with authentic prayer: “I was ashamed ...” Ezra was conflicted whether to ask the king for protection or not.
2. Dependence ends with active convictions. Through prayer, Ezra made the bold choice not to ask for any protection for the long journey. It's not the decision but the conviction (cf. Neh 2:9).
3. Illustration: Incongruent public life and private life of a US Congressman
4. Illustration: New Life Survey exposes our discipleship struggles in marriage and sex.
5. Illustration: 2018 sermon series on the book of Acts: We are Church – Pray and Repent!
6. Illustration: Journey of parenting – “God Help Us!”
7. Someone said that self-preservation is the greatest hindrance to dependence.
8. Application: Authentic prayer is the key to dependence.

Conclusion

“He listened to our entreaty” (v.23)

1. God answered Ezra's prayer completely. But He may not answer according to our preferred way and time.
2. “No one can believe how powerful prayer is and what it can effect, except those who have learned it by experience. Whenever I have prayed earnestly, I have been heard and have obtained more than I prayed for. God sometimes delays, but He always comes.” - Martin Luther
