Authentic Discipleship

PS BARNEY LAU, DIRECTOR, THE NEXT GENERATION

What is a Christian? What is a disciple? What is the difference?

The term "Christian" appears only 3 times in the NT, while "disciple" appears at least 268 times in 252 verses depending on the Bible version. Jesus was popularly known as a teacher or rabbi (Mk 9:5, 11:21; Jn 3:2) and his associates known as disciples. Members of the early Church (Acts 6:1) were first referred to as "Christians" in Acts 11:26 to mean disciples of Christ.

In biblical times, being a Christian is synonymous with a disciple which in Greek (mathētēs) means pupil. Unlike modern education, ancient Jewish rabbinic pupilage is more akin to the all-encompassing and immersive tradition of apprenticeship. The Torah and all of life is the classroom. To be a disciple is to follow the rabbi, literally, in all aspects of life – to learn by observing and doing, by imitating what their rabbi said and what, why and how they did in reaction and relation to everyday life and the manner in which they lived. The task of the disciple was to become as much like their rabbi as possible in philosophy, worldview, values and behavior. So, when Paul claimed himself Gamaliel's student (Acts 22:3), he claimed not only pedagogical pedigree but all the credibility and integrity of one disciplined under the great rabbi to persecute the Church.

Perhaps, the question is not what is a disciple, but who, and therefore who a Christian ought to be. It is not what we do or say that makes us Christian but who we follow by the life we live. Jesus' discipleship programme is far more radical than the rabbinic tradition. Jesus said, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow Me." (Lk 9:23 NASB). Jesus' call is for His followers to dethrone self and embrace a whole new identity, ("he must deny himself") and calling ("and take up his cross daily") in Christ, enthroning Him as Lord ("and follow Me")!

This is what "authentic discipleship" means in Covenant EFC's mission statement. Authentic discipleship is fundamentally about following Christ above all else with all we've got, in all situations, in all stations, and in all seasons of life, at work and ministry wherever God has placed us.

Last Week's Sermon Summary

Mandate: Returning the Church to Her Disciplemaking Roots

SCRIPTURE: TOPICAL • SERMON: PS ANDY LEW

Introduction

What does it take to return to the roots of discipleship?

A. Return to the Great COMMANDMENT (Matthew 22:34-40)

1. Context: A lawyer was trying to trap Jesus by asking him which of the 600 precepts was the greatest. Jesus surprised them all.
2. Not a law to be followed, but a Lord to be loved: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart (will), all your mind (intellect), and all your soul (emotions)" (cf. Deut 6:5)
3. Loving God should be excessive, extravagant, and extreme — giving God our best time and resources, not our leftovers. Example: The women with perfume jars loved Jesus excessively (Lk 7:36-40; Jn 12:3). Illustration: Marriage proposals in Singapore — go the distance and do the unthinkable.
4. Not just one great commandment, but two commandments: An upward love relationship with God and an outward love relationship with others. Loving God = Loving Neighbors. A loving relationship with our neighbours — "love your neighbor as yourself". Our neighbour is our brothers and sisters in our church, and our foreign friends (cf. Lev19:18, 34). Illustration: Life of Philip — from being an NUS scholar to being a lay pastor.
5. Application: 2018 is a year of prayer and repentance. Sign up for i12pray.
6. Summary: Return to loving God with your best!

B. Return to the Great COMMISSION (Matthew 28:18-20)

1. The Great Commission takes loving your neighbour to the next level.
2. Four misconceptions:
  - a. Not just going, but making disciples
  - b. Not just teaching a message, but investing in a life
  - c. Not just one nation, but all nations
  - d. Not just a one-man show, but with the authority and presence of Jesus
3. The mandate of the Church is to disciple the nations, by discipling the people of the nations.
4. Testimony: Blessing family, neighbours, and CG blessing migrant workers. Sending workers to India, East Asia, Indonesia and Nepal.
5. Summary: Disciple Now! Return to making disciples.

Conclusion

Show us the Ancient Paths!

Testimony: Janet and Charles blessing two special needs children in Indonesia
