WATCHNIGHT

Let's look back and thank God for what He has done in this Year of Prayer and Repentance. Covenanters will testify how God moved their hearts to pray, repent and reach others with the Gospel. Let's look forward to the Year of Proclamation, believing God for a harvest in our church and land like never before. Come with your family and CG tomorrow, 31 Dec, 8pm to 11pm at WDL Centre!

CELEBRATION OF HOPE PRAYER LEAD-UP

We praise God for the Body of Christ that gathered at PraySingapore to seek the welfare of our city and ask God for harvest in the coming Year of Proclamation.

Join us for the monthly regional Celebration of Hope prayer lead-up hosted by Covenant! This is open to all Christians in Singapore. God acts in answer to our prayers because He desires that none should perish!

Abounding Grace

TONY TAN, ELDER-DESIGNATE

REV TAN KAY KIONG AND REV TONY YEO, SENIOR PASTORS

And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work ... You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way ... – 2 Corinthians 9:8, 11a

As we close 2018, let us reflect on the bountiful grace we have received from the Lord throughout the year. Let us thank Him for always being with us, for upholding us and for never abandoning us as we journeyed across mountains and valleys.

In life, good and bad run on parallel tracks. I am sure that through 2018, each one of us have experienced our share of victories and defeats, joys and sorrows, tears and laughter. In all things however, a universal constant remains — God's grace is sufficient and we can experience the fullness of His peace and presence through the power of His love that sustains us.

Having been thus enriched by His all-sufficient grace and mercies, our grateful response must be to abound in good works and generosity. Has God supplied us with every necessary provision and more? Has He protected us and kept us out of harm's way? Has He blessed and established the works of our hands? As an act of thanksgiving, let's reciprocate by channelling His abounding grace into generous giving to advance His mission and purpose for His church.

We have a vision to raise a seed fund of $40M for the purpose of advancing the IDMC Movement in Singapore. May each Covenanter contribute generously and in faith, believing that God will accomplish His purposes through Covenant EFC. Let's be faithful to bring the best of our firstfruits by Feb 2019.

Last Week's Sermon Summary

When Storms Come

SCRIPTURE: ACTS 27 • SERMON: PS MATTHEW LO

Introduction

Paul was arrested in Jerusalem. While he was in custody, the Lord appeared and told him that he must testify about Christ in Rome. Two years later after five court trials, Paul wanted to appeal to Caesar which gave him passage to Rome.

A. When Storms Come, Cling Onto Christ

1. Paul set on a ship voyage from Caesarea as a prisoner. It started as a routine journey but gradually turned into a terrifying voyage as the ship was caught in a tremendous storm.
2. The ship crew frantically tried to stabilise the ship. Everyone clung on for dear life. In contrast, Paul clung onto Christ. In Acts 27:23 – 25, Paul stood up declaring “I belong” to Christ, “I worship” Christ and “I have faith in God”.
3. In the madness and unpredictability of life's storms, cling onto Christ.
When life's storms make us feel:
 - a. Stressed thereby impacting our relationships – Show the character of Christ.
 - b. Afraid – Allow God to care of us; let's enter into His presence.
 - c. Anxious – Let's find our confidence in God; turn to Him in prayer.
 - d. Helpless and hopeless – Put your hope in God and call to Him in your distress.
 - e. Alone – Walk in spiritual community.
4. Personal story: Clinging onto God in the jungles of East Timor

B. When Storms Comes, Stay Anchored to His Promises

1. On the fourteenth night, the ship was close to land. The sailors threw anchors, prayed to pagan gods, and tried to escape because they were so afraid. In contrast, Paul anchored himself to the promises of God because he has placed his confidence in Christ!
2. Paul anchored himself to the promises of God:
 - a. “You must testify (about Christ) in Rome.” – Acts 23:11
 - b. “You must stand before Caesar ... all those who sail with you (will be saved).” – Acts 27:24
3. When the ship struck a reef, all 276 passengers and crew were brought safely to the shore! God's promises came to pass!
4. When storms come, find God's promises in the Scriptures (e.g. Psalms). Keep a journal to remember His faithfulness and surrender to him.

Conclusion: Before The Storm

Jesus faced storms: His betrayal, arrest and crucifixion. He rose again so that we may have an abiding relationship with Him. When storms come, we can cling to Him and be anchored to His promises. Be prepared for storms in your life by building your trust in the Lord before the storm hits.
