Antidote to the Busy and Barren Life

PS ADRIAN CHAN, PASTORAL STAFF, INTEGRATED EQUIPPING

In 2007, CNN reported a psychology professor's study of walking speed in 32 cities. The study found that "people in the greatest hurry live in Singapore". New York came in at 8th and London at 12th. The study sees walking pace as a measure of the cities' pace of life. Today, has our pace of life quickened even further? But does going faster make us weary, barren and lost? Are we prioritising our time and energy in aspects which truly matter, such as self-care, family, relationships and meaningful work? Although meaningful engagements require a period of busyness, I hope we are not busy all the time. We need the wisdom of balance to stay refreshed and rejuvenated in life.

According to Rev Edmund Chan, the key to being refreshed amidst busyness is to keep our spiritual anchor deep in God. It is to centre down in God. Many of us learned this from him in Intentional Discipleship Training (IDT) about turning around from a life of busyness, boredom and barrenness. It is vital to revisit these principles again. Amidst a busy life, while the world's prescription is to slow down, God's prescription is to centre down:

Slowing down deals with our running.

Centring down deals with our lostness.

Slowing down questions our capacity.
Centring down questions our confusion.

Slowing down offers us a consolation.
Centring down offers us a compass.

Slowing down helps us catch a breath.
Centring down helps us catch a vision.

Slowing down blames the external environment.
Centring down examines inner roots.

Slowing down is a vicious cycle.
Centring down is a vital solution!

Slowing down seeks to add Jesus to our crowded schedule.
Centring down anchors Jesus as Lord of all our schedule!

Worldly intelligence has not understood these principles revealed to those belonging to Jesus (Matt 11:25-30). Jesus has called out: "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." Jesus calls us again today to learn about the abundant life from Him. Will you centre down your life in Him?

COMMUNITY BLESSINGS

It is currently a good time of the year to bless seniors with mobility issues and are living alone! These seniors' existing meal delivery service takes a temporal break during the 1st and 2nd Day of Chinese New Year. We invite Covenanters to prepare home-cooked food and delivery as our way to love the community for Christ. Please message Vincent Chia on Whatsapp at 98428275 to sign up or enquire.
